The article begins with the quote, "I want to do it to try to work together so..." and continues to discuss the need for the airport board to cooperate with the community. It mentions the importance of the airport in the city's economic development and enhances the community's quality of life. The article also highlights the need for the board to be responsive to the community's needs.

The article concludes with the quote, "Mayor would love to land airport-panel seat."